THANA Notebook Cooling Pad, Fits up to 17", 1-Fan

The Conceptronic Foldable Notebook cooling stand is the perfect multifunction cooling stand for any situation. The versatile device can be used as either a notebook stand or cooling pad, and is powered by a USB so can work independently of an external power source. As a stand, it can be adjusted to 5 different angles to provide the ideal working environment for any circumstances. The Conceptronic Cooling Stand features a sophisticated metal mesh surface with a powerful yet silent 14cm fan to prevent devices from overheating. A classy and very useful addition to any mobile workstation.
